

Dear Lasallian brothers and partners,

As we prepare to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord on this Easter feast, let us also rejoice in the new life and hope that the Lasallian mission is currently experiencing in our region. In Istanbul, we have made a bold and prophetic choice to embrace a future of unity, collaboration and renewal. It is a call to conversion, an act of faith and a testimony to our trust in the work of the Spirit, as Brother Armin reminded us.

At this time, our hearts are particularly close to you, dear Lasallians of the Holy Land, Palestine and Lebanon. We know how your communities are facing immense trials, but your resilience and your commitment to the Lasallian mission remain a beacon of hope for us all. As you go through these dark days, may the light of the Risen Christ fill your hearts with strength, courage and the assurance that you are not alone. We stand with you in prayer, solidarity and fraternity, and we pray that peace, justice and reconciliation may soon dawn upon your land.

The path ahead of us will require prayer, discernment and action. Let us continue to listen to one another, to support the most vulnerable and to build a future where the Lasallian charism shines forth fully in Europe and the Mediterranean.

The stone of the tomb has been rolled away: let us go forth with courage, boldness and hope.

May the joy of the Resurrection fill our hearts with renewed energy and faith. Together, let us bear witness to the hope that this Easter brings – a hope that transforms, unites and inspires.

Christ is risen! He is truly risen!

With our fraternal and Easter greetings,

Br Enrico Muler, Joe Gilson, Tomeu Martorell & Br Joël Palud
